Press Release

PARIS, JUNE 6, 2003

SG CORPORATE & INVESTMENT BANKING APPOINTS NEW MEMBERS TO EUROPEAN INVESTMENT BANKING EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

SG Corporate and Investment Banking (SG CIB) have announced two new appointments to the European Executive Committee of the Global Investment Banking Division which are effective as of June 6, 2003.

Jean-Claude Petard, previously head of Equity Sales and Trading, will become head of Equity Capital Markets. He replaces Carlos Condé, who will leave the Société Générale Group to pursue other interests.

Jacques Ripoll, who was in charge of the hedge fund sales group, and also in charge of the equity financing group within Equity Derivatives, will become head of Equity Sales and Trading.

The European Executive Committee will be composed as follows:

- Thierry Aulagnon, head of Global Investment Banking Division in Europe;
- Jérôme Calvet, head of Mergers and Acquisitions;
- Jean-Claude Petard, head of Equity Capital Markets;
- Patrick Legland, head of Equity Research;
- Jacques Ripoll, head of Equity Sales and Trading;
- John Murphy, Chief Operating Officer.

The Executive Committee will work to develop the Investment Banking platforms and synergies in the context of SG CIB's reinforced European growth strategy, focusing on France, United Kingdom, Germany, Spain, and Italy.
