Société Générale Securities Services Wins “Most Innovative European Securities Services Provider” in Financial-i Awards

Société Générale Securities Services (SGSS) has won the title of “Most Innovative Securities Services Provider Europe” in the Financial-i Leaders in Innovation Awards 2007.

This award acknowledges SGSS’ approach to serving clients and developing successful solutions to their needs and requirements in a fast-developing business.

In selecting SGSS as the winner, the judges, composed of industry analysts and thought leaders, recognised the company’s ability to innovate and demonstrate the benefit of this innovation for its clients.

 Financial-i magazine covers the complete transaction cycle, focusing on the business and operational evolution of wholesale financial services from treasury and cash management through to trading and asset administration.*
