SOGECAP and SOGESSUR announce strong 2007 annual results

SOGECAP

Sogécap, the life insurance company of Société Générale Group, published its 2007 annual results on April 10, 2008.

- Gross operating income: 302 million euros (+29% vs 2006).
- Net income within Société Générale Group (under IFRS): 215 million euros (+23% vs 2006).

After an exceptional year in 2006, 2007 was Sogécap's second best year with revenues of 8.9 billion euros and continuing development both in France and internationally.

In France, where Sogécap confirmed its place as fourth bancassurer with 14% market share, its products are regularly acclaimed by the specialised financial press.

Internationally, under the Société Générale Insurance brand, the Group now has twelve entities, six of which were created during 2007. Using the bancassurance model, Sogécap has developed its activities in savings, personal protection and retirement businesses in synergy with the Group's other business lines or in partnership with external distributors.

SOGESSUR

Sogessur, Société Générale Group's damage insurance company, published its 2007 annual results on March 14, 2008.

- Company net income : 4.3 million euros (+16% vs 2006).
- Revenue: 152 million euros (+14% vs 2006).

Sogessur, which celebrated ten years of operation in 2007, continued its growth and is now recognised as an important player in damage insurance in France. With a market share of 10%, Sogessur ranks number three in France in personal accident insurance.

With 994,000 contracts in its portfolio at the end of March 2008, Sogessur should reach one million contracts by the end of April.
