SG Equipment Finance wins Lessor of the Year 2008 Award

SG Equipment Finance wins the Leasing Life Lessor of the Year 2008 Award, presented at the annual Leasing Life Asset Finance awards dinner on the 12th of November 2008.

Leasing Life, a specialized industry journal for news and analysis on leasing and asset finance for Europe launched the Leasing Life Awards in 2007 in order to acknowledge the best companies as well as industry leaders and professionals.

Several international leasing companies were nominated for the Lessor of the Year Award. A panel of independent analysts, industry professionals and consultants specializing in the asset finance and leasing industry named SG Equipment Finance winner, based on a combination of growth, innovation, profitability and service to their customers. Green credentials and how they were reflected in their work ethic were also taken into consideration.

A board member and former Chairman of Leaseurope, Jean-Marc Mignerey, CEO SG Equipment Finance, was named Leasing Personality of the Year 2007 at the Leasing Life awards in recognition of "his action for the promotion of the European leasing industry and for building simultaneously one of the most successful leasing companies which he has taken not only across Europe, but across the world to Asia Pacific, China and America".
