Société Générale Corporate & Investment Banking renews its #1 position in Risk's Inter-Dealer Rankings in Equity Derivatives

Société Générale Corporate & Investment Banking again came out on top in Equity Derivatives in the 2007 Risk Inter-Dealer Rankings published in the September issue of the magazine. Société Générale Corporate & Investment Banking renewed its #1 ranking in all equity derivatives categories overall in terms of cumulative points and improved its already excellent 2006 rankings in several individual categories:

- #1 for OTC single stock equity products
- #1 for equity index options
- #1 for warrants
- #1 for exotic equity products.

This year, over 1000 dealers cast their votes for the best derivatives dealer based on a variety of criteria, including pricing, liquidity provision, speed of execution, reliability and electronic trading capabilities.

These recent rankings by market professionals complement the recognition the bank receives from clients and analysts year after year as the world's leading equity derivatives house. Société Générale Corporate & Investment Banking is regularly recognized as Equity Derivatives House of the Year by leading industry publications such as The Banker and IFR.
